PEACE FOLLOWS WAR

The Struggle in Brazil Is Practically Ended.

THE INSURGENTS HAVE LOST.

The Rebel Forces Have Surrendered Unconditionally Almost Without Firing a Shot—A French Vessel Put to Sea With the Rebel Officers on Board—A Bombardment of Three Hours' Duration.

RIO JANEIRO, March 14.—The war is practically over, and the cause of the insurgents is a lost one. There is much rejoicing in this city at the culmination of the struggle, which has continued so many months, with no object seeming to but to hamper business and destroy property.

The rebel forces have surrendered unconditionally, almost without firing a shot. The officers of the insurgent fleet have taken refuge on board French and Portuguese warships. One French vessel has put to sea with many of the rebel officers on board.

It is said that Admiral Da Gama is on board the British warship Sirius.

Yesterday at 12 o'clock precisely the bar fortress opened fire upon Fort Villegaignon. In a short time the government forces at Fort Annacore and Fort Gragoata joined in the bombardment. The fire was not returned by the insurgents. The bombardment was continued until 3 o'clock, when it ceased.

Castello, San Bento, Saude, Curvello and all the city batteries then opened a furious fire upon Fort Villegaignon and the insurgent warship Tamandaro. The fire was also directed upon the insurgent works at Cobras island and at other places.

The forces at Enchadas lowered the hospital flag and heisted the insurgent ensign.

The garrison at Governor's island also took part in the attack on Fort Villegaignon, which was badly hammered by the government guns.

The works on Cobras island took fire, but the flames were soon extinguished.

The firing of the batteries lasted for an hour. No great damage was done. The insurgents did not fire a shot, husbanding their ammunition.

At 4 o'clock the government fleet appeared off the harbor, the torpedo boat Anura leading. The other vessels in the fleet were the Nictheroy, America, Itaipu, Bahia, Tiradentes and Paralyba and two steamers and five torpedo boats.

Immediately upon the appearance of the squadron the rebels halted down the white ensign from one of the ships, which was lying near Enchadas, and hoisted a signal, which was answered from ashore. A launch containing an officer then went from one insurgent ship to another, and each vessel lowered the white flag. Two torpedo boats from the government fleet outside then entered the bay. One of them went to Fort Villegaignon, and it was shortly followed by the launch from the rebel ship. A few minutes later the white ensign came down from the fort, and at 5:45 o'clock the government fleet came up the bay, being a welcome sight to the anxious people on shore.

As the vessels made their way up the bay they were saluted by the various government batteries.

The greatest excitement prevails in the city. The streets are crowded and everywhere can be heard the cry of "Viva Peixoto." For the last two days the streets have been packed with people and all the available trucks and hand-carts have been busy carrying household goods and personal effects out of the city.

The train cars were jammed until it was learned that the struggle was over. This was most joyful news to the people who fully expected that a battle was at hand.

There has been much suffering in the city. All business houses have been closed and it has been very difficult to get food. The whole available police force has been on duty constantly, but there has been little disturbance.

HEAVY SHIPMENT OF COAL.

The Biggest Fleet Ever in Charge of a Single Tow Going Down the Mississippi.

LOUISVILLE, March 14.—The biggest fleet of coal ever in charge of a single tow left Louisville yesterday for down the river points. The Joe B. Williams took the floating field of black diamonds, which covers eight acres of water surface, contains over a million bushels, and, if hauled by rail, would make a train of cars 11 1/2 miles long, or 75 locomotives pulling a train of 20 cars each. This would mean about 1,320 flatcars, and there would be 500 tons to each locomotive.

The coal is the property of Charles Jutte & Company, the big Pennsylvania coal field owners, and is under the personal charge of Gus Jutte, one of the members of the firm. The coal alone, not counting the boats, at the least estimate, is worth fully $60,000.

SAVED JUST IN TIME.

The Steamer Briscoe Would Soon Have Sunk With All on Board.

HALIFAX, March 14.—The steamer Briscoe, in tow of the Virginia Lake, arrived at St. Johns, N. F. After the lifeboat left Saturday the men were so disheartened by their misery that they decided to abandon the steamer and to take refuge on a passing brig bound here. The captain consented, but the vessel could not make out the signals.

The Virginia Lake got to the Briscoe at 2 o'clock Monday morning, supplied her with provisions and began towing at daylight. The bulkhead is leaking, and there is water among the cargo, but the damage at present is unknown. In a few days more the ship would have sunk, the crew being unable to pump

WABASH IN THE OIL BELT.

The Question to Be Systematically Investigated This Season.

WABASH, Ind., March 14.—The Butler Oil company of Pittsburg is leasing thousands of acres of oil lands in Liberty township, this county. These are the first oil leases made, although large tracts in the southern half of the county have been leased to gas companies. Oil prospectors say that there is a rich oil field extending in a northwesterly direction from Portland and Hartford City into this county, and there are great anticipations of a strike near Lafontaine.

Last week oil in paying quantities was found at Landessville, Grant county, 10 miles southeast of Lafontaine, and the Butler company, which expects to put down wells at once near the latter place, are confident of getting producers. By the conditions of the leases signed by many Wabash county farmers, the company binds itself to begin drilling wells within six months, and if natural gas is struck it is to furnish the land owners free fuel and $100 a well per annum.

In the event of an oil strike, the oil is to be sold to the Standard company, and one-eighth of the proceeds of the sale of the product is to be given to the property owner. Until the land is developed the company is to pay the agreed rental of $1 an acre. Within a few months it will be known positively whether Wabash county is or is not in the Indiana oil belt.

NUNS AS TEACHERS.

Injunction Asked in Behalf of Public Schools at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, March 14.—P. T. Kerr, state councillor of the Junior Order of American Mechanics, and five others, members of the order, appeared before Judge McClung, in the county court, and made application for an injunction restraining the Riverside public school board from employing members of religious orders, wearing the garb of the order, as teachers in the school. The bill also asks that the sisters now engaged there be not permitted to remain in the public schools as teachers, or otherwise, while wearing the garb of their order, or in any known religious or sectarian capacity. It recites further that the Riverside board is maintaining a private sectarian parochial school as a department of the public schools in derogation of the rights of the children, parents, citizens and taxpayers, and in violation of the law; that they propose to apply to the central board of education to obtain colorable legal authorization to ratify the engagement and presence of the sisters as teachers. Judge McClung took the papers and fixed Saturday, March 24, for a hearing. This evening the central board of education will meet, and it is expected the matter of granting teachers' certificates to the nuns will come up for consideration.

ACCESSORY TO AN EMBEZZLEMENT.

Former Mayor of St. Louis Arrested on a Serious Charge.

ST. LOUIS, March 14.—James H. Britton, formerly mayor of this city, and one time president of the State Bank of Missouri, but now a citizen of New York, was arrested here yesterday by a United States marshal, charged with being an accessory to an embezzlement by his son, Alfred M. Britton, president of the First National bank of Vernon, Texas.

The arrest is based on a transaction between father and son; the former gave the latter his note for $2,412.40. This the son cashed through his bank, the First National of Vernon, Tex. The charge made by the United States authorities is that the son knew the elder Britton to be insolvent when the note was given, and in consequence embezzlement proceedings were brought, with the result stated.

Returning to California.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 14.—A gang of unemployed workmen who have been subsisting on the charity of the San Antonio relief society for the past several weeks, captured a west-bound Southern Pacific freight train here and left for California, from which state the majority of them came to this place. They were each provided with two days' rations on their trip by the relief society. The train crew were powerless and permitted the men to ride.

Worked by an Imposter.

GOSHEN, Ind., March 14.—A few days ago a man representing himself to be one of the Hirschman Brothers of Birmingham, N. Y., dropped into town, looking for a location. He drew a stock draft for $5,000 on a New York bank, and then leased a double room for a department store. He was liberal with printer's ink, and after raising several hundred dollars on checks he disappeared. Last week, it is said, he worked Millertown, Pa.

Two Men Killed in a Collision.

BOSTON, March 14.—The Montreal express, northbound, and the Quebec express met in a head-on collision at Capleton, near Sherbrooke, Que. The engineer of one of the trains and a train-hand, who was in the cab with him, were killed. None of the passengers were seriously injured, and none of the cars left the track.

Bitten by a Mad Dog.

PORTLAND, Ind., March 14.—A cow belonging to Davin Whitesell, living near the state line, was bitten by a mad dog two weeks ago. Yesterday it developed hydrophobia and had to be shot. Whitesell's two boys, David, Jr., and William, were bitten at the same time, and grave fears are entertained for their safety.

Fatal Runaway.

GALLIPOLIS, O., March 14.—Emery Harrison was thrown from a buggy and internally injured. He will die. His horse frightened at the cars.

START FOR THE POLE.

The Walter Wellman Party Off For Spitzbergen.

UNIQUE ARCTIC ENTERPRISE.

What the Young Explorer Hopes to Accomplish—Novel Features of the Expedition—The Frozen North's Fascinating Mystery May Soon Be Solved—Aluminum Has Been Largely Used in His Outfit.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Mr. Walter Wellman, the well known journalist, sailed on the steamer Britannic today en route for Spitzbergen, from which point his expedition will make a summer dash for the north pole. Mr. Wellman was accompanied by three other Americans—Professor Owen B. French, late of the United States coast and geodetic survey and an experienced and capable scientist; Dr. Thomas B. Mohun, a successful Washington physician, and Charles C. Dodge, the artist and photographer of the expedition. The enterprise is under the leadership of Mr. Wellman, and the three men named are his lieutenants.

WALTER WELLMAN.

Ten hardy young Norwegians, ambitious and experienced in arctic exploration, will join the party in Norway, and the expedition will sail from Tromsø, Norway, for the islands of Spitzbergen about the 1st of May. At Dane's island, which is very near the eightieth parallel—that point of latitude so far north that many explorers have never reached and few have ever passed it—headquarters will be established, and then the party will steam to the edge of the great ice pack about a degree farther north. After a landing is effected the steamer will return to Dane's island, and about the 10th or 15th of May the dash for the pole will begin.

That marvelous new metal, aluminum, has been utilized in the construction of sledges, boats and other apparatus, and thus equipped with far lighter paraphernalia than any previous explorer. Mr. Wellman expects to be able to push on north at the rate of from 12 to 20 miles per day. As he will have only about 600 miles to travel before the pole is reached, he expects to reach either that goal or a point very near it in 50 days. He will then return to the edge of the pack in 50 days more, his steamer will pick him up and he will then return home.

Mr. Wellman has carefully studied the great problem before him and expects to profit by the knowledge gained by previous explorers who have traversed the pack and to avoid their mistakes. His early start is for the purpose of getting far north before the pack begins its drift toward the south. Away back in 1877 Sir Edward Parry pushed on northward over the pack at the rate of from 16 to 20 miles per day, but his heavy equipage compelled him to break his loads into parts and pass from five to seven times over the same road.

Other explorers, handicapped with old time sledges and boats, have been compelled to progress in the same slow manner, but Mr. Wellman believes that with his light aluminum outfit retracing his steps will be unnecessary, and that every mile traveled will take him a mile farther toward the pole. At the start the drift of the ice pack will not be against him, and when he returns later in the season it will assist him in his homeward journey.

Mr. Wellman carries with him his aluminum boats and sledges—the first ever built in America—and tests have demonstrated that they are by far the lightest and at the same time the very strongest boats and sledges of their size that the world has ever seen. The entire equipment of the party of 14 will be about 5,500 pounds, and as 40 hardy draft dogs will assist in carrying it, the average weight per man and dog will be about 100 pounds.

One novel feature of Mr. Wellman's scheme of exploration is that it is strictly a newspaper expedition, and if Mr. Wellman's plans are carried out the world will be apprised of his progress toward the pole, a thing that has never before been done in the case of any previous polar expedition.

Members of his party will beset back from time to time to the edge of the ice pack with letters describing the progress of the expedition and the discoveries made by the explorers. At the edge of the ice pack the dispatches will be taken on board Mr. Wellman's steamer, which will return to Norway, whence the world will receive the news.

Whether Mr. Wellman's dash for the pole will be successful or not remains to be seen, but if his novel plan is even partly carried out he will succeed in reaching a degree of latitude further north than that reached by any previous explorer. With Wellman, Peary, Nansen and possibly Jackson in quest of the pole this year, it seems highly probable that 1894 will mark the solution of the frozen north's fascinating mystery.

Killed His Son in Self-Defense.

CALDWELL, Tex., March 14.—Near Meyers, young Jim Robinson was breaking a horse. When his father ordered him to quit, the son pulled a pistol. The old man secured a Winchester and killed the son, who continued to snap the pistol at the old man. Robinson surrendered and was placed under $500 bond.

ENGLISH HOUSE OF LORDS.

The House of Commons Passes a Resolution to Abolish It.

LONDON, March 14.—In the house of commons yesterday Mr. Henry Labouchere proposed as an amendment to the address in reply to the queen's speech, abolishing the house of lords. After some discussion and considerable excitement, the amendment was put to a vote and was passed, 147 to 145, in spite of the opposition of the government.

The division on Mr. Labouchere's amendment to abolish the house of lords occurred earlier than was expected, and many of the canvassers were absent at dinner. The majority was composed of 78 McCarthyites and Parnellites, the remainder being Radicals.

When the division paper was handed to Mr. Labouchere, a tremendous cheer broke from the Irish and Radical benches and the members standing below the gangway. Mr. Tanner was excitedly cheering and waving his handkerchief, while the government tellers looked pale, especially Chief Whip Ellis. All the ministers looked downcast, while Mr. Balfour smiled ironically.

What the outcome of this victory will be can not be prophesied. Sensationalists talk of the cabinet resigning and a general turnover of English politics, while the more conservative classes maintain that the amendment being passed at a time when the government forces were absent, it will amount to nothing more than a nine days wonder.

It is, however, generally conceded that the Rosebery administration has been ushered in in a manner not to be desired or applauded. Editorially, the morning papers concede this fact, even though they belittle the episode of the day.

RECENT EVENTS IN HONOLULU.

A Sensational Story Brought by the Passengers of the Steamer Arawa.

SYDNEY, March 14.—Passengers of the steamer Arawa, which has just arrived here, give to the Associated Press correspondent an interesting story of recent events in Honolulu.

They assert that a subject of Japan was recently arrested in that city for a trivial offence and placed in jail. He escaped from jail and swam out to a Japanese warship. The authorities appealed to the American admiral, asking that he demand the surrender of the Japanese.

The commander of the Japanese warship refused to give the man up, and threatened that if the American admiral halted his ship he would give him a half hour to leave or, if he refused, the American flagship would be blown out of the water. According to the story of the passengers the escaped prisoner was unharmed.

ALLEGED DISQUALIFICATION.

A Juror Said to Have Been Incapacitated by Heart Trouble.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., March 14.—Desperate efforts are making to prevent sentence from being passed upon Mrs. Mary Heenan, who has been twice convicted of defrauding Mary Remley out of $3,800. Dr. M. A. Jordan has made affidavit that he was called during the progress of the last trial to attend a juror J. N. Adair, and that he administered whisky and other remedies for heart trouble sufficient to render the juror incapable of passing on the law and the evidence.

Mr. Adair, however, comes out in a statement, supported by that of two fellow jurors, to the effect that he took as intelligent a part in the proceedings as any of them. He further states that Dr. Jordan treated him for heart trouble, when all that ailed him was a lameness in one leg. He threatens to sue for malpractice.

STRIKERS DESTROY PROPERTY.

Silk Workers Commit Depredations at Paterson, N. J.

PATERSON, March 14.—The striking silk dyers marched to the works of Simon & Auger, broke down the doors and forced the workmen out of the establishment. They threw the unfinished silk on the floor, turned on the steam in the tubs and burned a large quantity of the material.

They then proceeded to the dyehouse of Richard J. Berdan, on Water street. The owner threatened to shoot the first man who entered the place, but the crowd took no notice of his threat and invaded his premises and ordered operators to cease work. Policemen are guarding all the dyehouses in the city.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The net gold in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $107,159,541, which shows a loss of $241,298 since Monday, and the cash balance has been reduced from $138,599,160 to $139,899,725. The loss of gold is solely on account of quarterly pensions paid in gold in San Francisco which began on March 4. The reduction in the cash balance is not significant and is explained by the fact that the warrants issued exceeded the receipts by that amount.

Kentucky Killing.

STURGIS, Ky., March 14.—Henry Kennedy shot and fatally wounded Frank Chatham, a notorious roter, at Blackford, 10 miles below here, last night. The ball struck Chatham in the abdomen and arm. He will die.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

The House Considering This Appropriation Measure.

THREE AMENDMENTS MADE.

Bitter Partisan Speeches Made by Several Representatives and Thus the Active Work Is Delayed—Armor Plate Investigation to Be Made—The Seigniorage Bill the Sole Topic of Discussion in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The house yesterday began the consideration of the bill making appropriations for the sundry civil expenses of the government, and fair progress was made. Only three amendments of any importance were adopted: One, appropriating $43,500 for lighting Hay Lake channel; another, $61,000 for the public building at Buffalo, and another of $90,000 for repairing the postoffice at New York. The latter was fought by the appropriation committee.

The only other amendment of importance was one made by Mr. Morse (Rep., Mass.) to cut off the appropriation for the interstate commerce commission. The manner which that portion of the appropriation for counsel fees ($184,000) was worded led to a rather spirited debate, in which Mr. Cannon of Illinois rather broadly intimated that this appropriation had been placed under the direction of the commission instead of the department of justice as heretofore, because of the criticism against Attorney General Olney from certain quarters that he was in sympathy with corporations.

The Morse amendment precipitated a rather bitter attack from Mr. Wise of Virginia, who had read an anonymous letter charging Mr. Morse with opposing the law from purely selfish reasons in the interest of the stove polish concern of which he is the proprietor.

When the sense of the house was tested upon the Morse proposition it was overwhelmingly defeated by Mr. Haines of New York, who made the point of no quorum against it.

Just before adjournment Mr. Cummings presented as a privileged report from the committee on naval affairs, his resolution calling for information from the secretary of the navy regarding the violation of the armor plate contracts by Carnegie, Phipps & Company, which had gone to that committee in the early part of the session on Mr. Stone's objection. The latter explained that he had no personal knowledge regarding the matter dealt with by the resolution, but he objected in the absence of Mr. Dalgell until he could communicate with Pittsburg. This he had done by telegraph and had learned that there was no objection to the passage of the resolution on the part of Carnegie, Phipps & Company.

He had seen many statements in the newspapers reflecting upon that company in connection with these contracts, and while he knew nothing personally about the matter from acquaintance with Mr. Carnegie and Mr. Phipps he felt sure that a full investigation would exonerate them from the charges that they had made any attempts to defraud the government. If defective plates had been delivered it was without their knowledge. The resolution was agreed to and the house then, at 5:10, adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The proceedings in the senate were of an extremely uninteresting character. Without the intervention of any morning business except the presentation of a few petitions and the introduction of some unimportant bills, the senate took up the discussion of the seigniorage bill. Senators Stewart and Lindsay spoke in favor and Mr. Dolph spoke in opposition to it, holding that its passage would destroy the existing equality between gold and silver, and the two new senators, Mr. McLaurin of Mississippi and Mr. Blanchard of Louisiana, received their committee appointments. They were as follows:

Blanchard—Chairman improvements of the Mississippi river and member of the committees on epidemic diseases, Indian affairs, railroads and public buildings and grounds.

McLaurin—Chairman committee to investigate the geological survey and member committees on civil service and re-trenchment, claims, Indian depredations and improvement of the Mississippi river.

ASSAULTED AND ROBBED.

Christian Margerie Half Murdered by Unknown Parties.

BREMEN, Ind., March 14.—Christian Margerie, a wealthy farmer who resides alone near the village of Carson, 10 miles north of this city, was found in his house yesterday morning by neighbors lying in a pool of blood and in an unconscious condition. A ghastly wound was found in his hand which had been made by some heavy instrument.

At noon he regained his senses and was able to talk of his experiences. He was at home alone, sitting near the window reading, when he was struck by a stone inflicting an ugly wound above his eye, completely depriving him of his senses. The stone had been hurled through the window with the intent to kill him. He was found lying on the floor, minus his pocketbook, which contained about $200, his bunch of keys and a pocket rule. His recovery is impossible. The farmers of that vicinity are terribly excited. There is no clue to the identity of his assailants.

An Empress Shaken by an Earthquake.

LONDON, March 14.—A dispatch to The Times from Vienna says: A shock of earthquake lasting eight seconds was felt at Abbazia, where the Empress of Germany is now visiting, yesterday.

Partly cloudy weather; cooler;

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press expressed the opinion in his Saturday dispatch that there is little or no probability of the defeat of the tariff bill in the Senate. Certainly not. The Democrats will keep their promise to revise the tariff.

THE BULLETIN has been favored by Commissioner McDowell with a copy of the Tenth Biennial Report of the Kentucky Bureau of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics. It is a book of nearly 300 pages, handsomely bound in cloth, and is one of the most valuable documents ever issued by the Department of Agriculture. There is a colored map of each county, with names and location of the various postoffices, and also a brief sketch of each county, setting forth its standing and advantages. The sketch of Mason County is from the pen of that brilliant and accurate writer, Mr. Thos. M. Green, and is highly complimentary. It will be published by the BULLETIN to-morrow.

HI, YI, BR'ER DAVIS.

E. E. Alden, the Vine street hatter and tailor, made an assignment on Monday morning to Charles J. Hunt. The assets are estimated at $10,000, and the liabilities at $7,000 to $8,000. The cause of the assignment is given as "one year of Democratic administration, with probabilities of three years more.—Cincinnati Post.

Wall new, what do you think of that "howl," Br'er Marsh? Can't you tell the Post that the Sherman Silver law caused this failure?—Public Ledger.

Always putting your foot in it, Br'er Davis. The Enquirer says:

This is the second time Mr. Alden has gone to the wall under stress of financial difficulty. He failed in 1885, when he was doing business in his own name of Frank H. Alden. After that he did business in the name of his wife. The cause of the present failure, as written on the record in the Probate Court is: "One year of Democratic administration and a prospect of three more." The real cause, however, was the unsuccessful attempt to carry on a merchant tailoring and gents' furnishing business in connection with his hat store. It did not pay. The assets are given as $10,000 and the liabilities $7,000 or $8,000. There is a large amount outstanding in accounts, which, if collected, will pay the debts, it is said.

Mr. Alden's first failure some years ago was during a good Republican administration. Wonder what cause he assigned then. And it was a worse failure than the present one.

A gentleman who formerly resided at Cincinnati and who sold Mr. Alden goods, remarked Tuesday: "The fact of the matter is, Alden is a high flyer. If he made $200 a month, he would spend $300. That's the course of his financial troubles."

A CARD.

To the Citizens of Mason County and the City of Maysville: It seems that one Hildebrand and one Jack Trevelyan complained to two high officials of the city of Maysville, who have the presumption to think that they have jurisdiction over me officially, relative to their diet at the county jail. If said officials will show me wherein either of them have anything to do with the prisoners after they are sent to jail, only pertaining to their release, I will, gratuitously thank them. When they are not being led enough they want sugar in their coffee, and I feel it my duty as an official, and besides being a free and independent man, I only have to ask myself whether I am doing my duty to the letter or not, officially, and want to add that I am more capable of answering that question than anyone else before my God. I have insisted on an investigation pertaining to my official duties, and want to add that I am subject to the action of every grand jury that convenes. I hear a great deal of complaint from a great many people who are not prisoners, claiming that certain officials do not do their duty. I want to say that I don't have any jurisdiction over said officials. If I had I would certainly aim to have some repairing done. If rumors are true, and in order for the public to understand what I mean by being a free and independent man is this, that I am not buckled on to any class or classes for policy. If I have to be, I will go under, trusting in the Supreme Being that I may rise again. Respectfully,
ROBERT C. KIRK,
Jailer of Mason County.

OHIO'S REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

The Cincinnati Times-Star is Thoroughly Disgusted With the "Trifling Idiocy."

The Cincinnati Times-Star, a well known Republican organ, is thoroughly disgusted with the trifling idiocy of the present Ohio Legislature, and ironically intimates that the following bills will be introduced and that they will compare very favorably with the bills already introduced by the solons of the State:

A bill regulating the price of putty, and prohibiting the sale of same to minors.

A bill for the rehabilitation of dingbats.

A bill providing penalties for adulteration of buttermilk.

A bill for the better protection of night-hawks in the day time.

A bill prohibiting dogs from howling later than 9 p. m. or earlier than 4 a. m. in cities of 10,000 or more.

A bill to provide the State Treasurer with one oriole, stem-winding, hunting case watch dog.

A bill to regulate the kissing of poodle dogs by females.

A bill to regulate prize fighting in Lawrenceburg, Ind.

A bill authorizing the city of Columbus to stuff its census biennially and no questions asked.

A bill to license hens and require them to label each egg with the date on which it is laid, on penalty of having their license revoked.

A bill to amend an act entitled an act to repeal an act entitled an act to provide for the polishing of base ball diamonds.

A bill to provide members introducing these bills with one bottle each of Hostetter's Arabian Sure Cure for Bots.

Rawlings vs. McRoberts.

In affirming this case taken up from Fleming County, the Court of Appeals rules that "a writing in form of a deed by which the person named as 'party of the first part' undertook to dispose of all his estate, specifically describing the lands, and providing that 'this conveyance to be put to record, but not to take effect so as to give possession until after my death,' is held to be a deed and not a will, although the grantor recites as a reason for executing the instrument that he is 'a bachelor, now advanced in years, has numerous kinspeople, and in view of the uncertainty of life desires to make a distribution of his estate, to go into effect on and after death.' The fact that the writing is to be put on record shows that the title is to vest at once, only the distribution and possession being postponed until the grantor's death."

County Court.

The last will of Penelope Pelham was admitted to record. W. C. Pelham qualified as executor.

John L. Caldwell qualified as administrator of Rebecca J. Caldwell, with R. P. Hopper as surety. Appraisers: Chas. B. Pearce, Jr., John Duley and C. C. Hopper.

The last will of James D. Stubblefield was admitted to record.

Mary L. Stubblefield was appointed administratrix with the will annexed of James D. Stubblefield, and qualified with E. W. Mitchell as surety.

An inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of Rebecca J. Caldwell was filed and ordered recorded. Amount of appraisement about $2,700.

Dr. HARVEY, assisted by Drs. Pickett, Owens, Reed and Pangburn, performed a delicate surgical operation on Harry Dressel, of the Sixth ward, Monday. The patient has been dangerously ill for several weeks, from some trouble of the brain, but has improved since the operation, which was a very successful one.

The Old Friend

And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons' Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

But One Church.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 11.—In his sermon this morning Rev. Dr. H. H. Stebbins, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, said: "I do not believe in denouncing the church of Christ, and hope that no one within hearing of my voice is in sympathy with the A. P. A. It must be remembered that the Romish Church is a Christian church, and that she has contributed very much to the literature and life of the church. There is room for the improvement of that church as for every other church. God bless every bishop and priest of the Roman Catholic Church and make the church a power for righteousness on earth. I pray that God may hasten the time when there shall be one church of God, one Bible, one creed, holiness to God, and the gospel to every creature as its errand."

KENTUCKY CROPS.

What the State Commissioner of Agriculture Has to Say of the Outlook

State Commissioner of Agriculture McDowell has resumed his monthly crop reports. In the one just issued he says: "We have had an unusual warm winter, very much like spring up to January 24th and 25th, when the thermometer dropped down to eight and ten degrees below zero, making a very fair ice spell, which most everyone took advantage of and filled their ice-houses. Grains of all kinds were looking very fine, and wheat in many places was looking too forward. Some correspondents think that the freeze of the 25th injured the wheat to some extent, but many others think the cold weather just before the snow did more harm than the first freeze. Wheat was badly lifted out of the ground in all poor spots, but the snow following just after the freeze was a very great advantage."

"From the report of the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington, the shortage of the wheat crop of 1893 is very marked; the total product is estimated at 396,131,725 bushels, which falls below the average for the ten years 1880 to 1890, to the amount of 53,568,364 bushels, and is 84,648,956 bushels less than the average crop for the years 1890 to 1893 inclusive. The falling off in price has been equally as great; the average government price is placed at 52 cents a bushel, the lowest price reached for many years past. The average price for Kentucky is 57 cents. The condition of the present crop on March 1 is placed at 93 per cent."

"Correspondents report an unusual amount of corn ground broke for this spring planting. This plan of fall and winter plowing is being adopted more and more every year. It is very beneficial to the soil to turn under green stubble in the fall, and the ground is in such a fine fix for planting in the spring. The value of the corn crop for 1893 is estimated at $591,625,627, and although it is only a small fraction short in bushels, comparatively, its money value to the farmer will be $50,000,000 less. The corn crop in Kentucky was very short in most parts of the State, but the farmers began to husband it very early, many of them feeding their hogs on wheat, thereby saving a large part of their crop for winter purposes, and to-day is worth very little more than it was last fall."

"Rye—Comparatively few counties report raising it. "Barley—Very much like rye. Only a very few counties are raising it. Per cent., 97."

"Mules—There is a falling of 10 per cent. in the number of mules in the State. The Government report makes an increase of a small per cent.; and a falling off in price from $70.98, in January, 1893, to $62.17."

"Horses—The condition of horses in the State is reported good, and, as is always the case with all kinds of stock when the price is low, there seems to be a surplus. The report of the sales in the past few months indicate very little demand, and at very low prices. 'Tis but a few years back that to own a good trotter a man was considered lucky, and a safe investment to buy one—but the recent sales make the future somewhat gloomy. We can certainly hope, however, that the worst is over, and can look for better times. The government report shows a general decrease in the number of horses, as compared to the returns of 1893, of a small per cent., and a very large diminution of prices."

"Hogs—The number of hogs in Kentucky has increased since my report twelve months ago; then it was 75 per cent; now it is placed at 87."

"Cattle—The number of cattle for market in the State is estimated at 91 per cent. The Government report indicates a small per cent. increase over last year, and prices not so good. The condition of cattle in the State is placed at 94 per cent."

"Tobacco—From present indications, preparations are being made for a full average tobacco crop. I have had large demand for seed, many from parties to whom I sent seed last year. The average farm price for tobacco for December last was 7.6."

"Sheep—There seems to be a very marked decline in the price of all kind of sheep, especially in breeding ewes. Since January, 1893, the decline is estimated at 38 per cent."

"Fruit—As to whether the fruit is killed, the answers of the correspondents are varied. There were seventeen answered, peaches all killed, and only thirteen out of a hundred and fifty answered that apples and small fruit were killed. I, therefore, conclude that the peach crop is killed, and that apples and small fruit are safe, so far."

THE WIND-UP.

The Legislature Finished Its Work Last Night—The Closing Business.

The first sixty-day session of the Legislature, under the new Constitution, finished its work and adjourned last night.

Up to last Saturday fifty-six bills and resolutions had been passed and had received the approval of the Governor. Since then he has signed many other measures, and the law-makers made a very creditable record during the session.

Tuesday morning a communication from the Governor announced that he had approved and signed sundry bills, among which were the bill requiring foreign convict-made goods to be stamped "convict-made," and the bill fixing the salaries of officers and employees of the two Houses of the General Assembly at the same figures as allowed by the last Legislature.

The bill for the protection of fish in the streams of the State was passed Monday. The Courier-Journal correspondent says: Kentucky now has a Game and a Fish bill, which, if enforced, as they can be, will in three years give the State a prestige for increase of game. Lovers of the rod and gun and those who believe in protecting our game owe a debt of gratitude to Representative R. K. Hart, of Fleming, for the zeal and ability with which he championed the two bills in the House.

The bill relating to voluntary assignments was passed.

A vote of 48 to 15 passed the bill to prevent a violation of local options laws by carriers and agents delivering jugs of liquor along railway and steamboat routes.

The House passed Mr. Searcy's substitute for Senate bill 80, which is to enable Richmond, and cities of the fourth class, through their City Council, to appoint a school board. Under the present law it was possible for such cities to be left without a school board for about a year.

MR. GEORGE CLINGER and son-in-law, Mr. George Pollitt, have bought Wood Bros' meat store on Market street, and will carry on the business at the present stand under the firm name of Clinger & Pollitt.

A DOUBLE wedding occurred at the County Clerk's office Tuesday morning, Judge Phister officiating. The couples hailed from Nicholas, and were John McKay and Dellie Hopkins, Thomas Blant and Matilda McKay.

RUGGLES camp meeting this year will commence Thursday, August 2nd, and continue two weeks. The services of Dr. Berry, the great Epworth League worker, have been secured for part of the meeting. Dr. Hamilton or Bishop Joyce will also be present one Sunday. An Epworth League Day will be one of the features of the meeting.

NEAR the close of the after service last night at the Methodist Episcopal Church, great power came upon the people, and it was a happy time for the believers. Services to-day as follows: Young ladies prayer meeting at 4 p. m.; secret prayer at 5 p. m.; preaching at 7 p. m. Will you come praying and trust God for a great work to be wrought in our city.

D. P. HOLT, Pastor.

THE handsomest line of clocks ever shown in Maysville, the lowest prices ever offered and quality never excelled. I have just received a new stock of onyx, iron, bronze and wood clocks, and will offer them at prices lower than same goods have ever been offered. Prices guaranteed lower than any other house.

P. J. MURPHY, Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

PROF. HICKS promises something lively for this week. Hear him: "Within twenty-four hours of 6 p. m., on the 14th, storms of marked energy will be passing the central parts of the continent, heavy easterly gales will rage on the Atlantic coasts, and a sweeping, blizzardous cold wave will be bearing down from North and West. Thunder, rain and hail, with tornadoes in southerly quadrants, will suddenly give place to extremes of cold."

THE cry of fire stampeded a big audience in the Lancaster M. E. Church Sunday night and several persons narrowly escaped serious injury. Rev. Gowan, of the Christian Church, had preached to a packed house, nearly every seat being filled, the union service being held. While singing the closing hymn, the cry was started, and there was a rush for the door. The preacher and some of the more devout worshippers continued singing to a finish the hymn.

COXEY'S "COMMONWEAL" ARMY.

Only One Man Has Enlisted Up to the Present Time.

CLEVELAND, March 14.—A special from Massillon to The Leader says: There is no truth whatever in the report that this city is already thronged with tramps who have come here to join the Coxe "On-to-Washington" army which departs from here on Easter Sunday, March 25. Mr. Coxe is doing all he can to prevent tramps and anarchists from assembling here to join the "Commonweal," and it is hoped he will succeed, but whether he can prevent their coming here is the question. There is a possibility that tramps and plunderers will attempt to follow in the wake of the army, which has probably been the cause of the tramp story being circulated.

Many letters are received daily from all parts of the country from persons who say they are getting up a company and will join here or somewhere along the route. Mr. Coxe says he does not care to start with many from here, but expects that each day new members will be added while en route.

A cowboy from Oklahoma is the only enlistment to the army thus far. He is at present grooming Coxe's horses.

No Uneasiness at the War Department.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The war department officials have had no request for rations from any one connected with the Industrial League, which organization is said to be contemplating a raid in force on Washington, and it may be safely predicted that no such requisition is likely to be honored if it is made.

Of course the army officers do not relish the threat that the Capitol is to be overrun by a horde of unemployed and hungry people, as it would add greatly to the burdens of the relief organizations here. But, touching the implied threat of trouble and disturbance in store for the town if the extraordinary demands of the fomenters of this Industrial League movement are not granted, the army officers have no anxiety.

Ever since the riots here in the seventies the war department has realized the importance of having at hand a sufficient force to meet any emergency likely to arise, and they feel that there need be no fear of trouble from this last sensational movement. The suggestion was made jokingly that it was believed the authorities could deal better with the Industrial League than with the office-seeking brigade.

VESSEL WRECKED, ALL DROWNED.

The Fate of the Schooner Mary Brown Has at Last Been Learned.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 14.—The fate of the schooner Mary Brown, for which the United States government sent the steamer Wolcott to search, has at last been determined. A party of Indians reached Claxton, on the Skeen river, a week ago from Gilkatta, and reported the schooner on the rocks of Banks island with a hole in her bow, masts gone and boats smashed.

On the deck they found three rifles, three watches, some money and a small pennant with the name "Brown" on it. Captain Brown and James O'Brien of the Lynde & Hough Commercial company and nine other white passengers are unquestionably drowned. The schooner was of 50 tons burden.

Turned Out to Be a Horse Thief.

St. Louis, March 14.—Sylvester Wilkerson, the man who is locked up at the Belleville jail, suspected of being one of the men who held up and attempted to rob a passenger train on the Mobile and Ohio railroad near East St. Louis a week ago, turned out to be a horse thief, who has been stealing horses all over the state of Illinois.

Secret Labor Conference.

MILWAUKEE, March 14.—It is rumored that an important secret conference of labor leaders in regard to the Judge Jenkins investigation will be held in this city. It is stated that representatives of all the great labor organizations of the country are here and that they are registered under assumed names.

Two Stores Robbed.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 14.—Monday night, at Selma, robbers broke into the Schull grocery and Black & Bortfield's hardware store. Considerable booty was secured. The big iron safe in the hardware store could not be opened, and several hundred dollars were saved.

Fell on a Fork.

OXFORD, O., March 14.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murray, while sliding down a strawstack yesterday afternoon, struck a pitchfork, one of the prongs penetrating her thigh to the depth of several inches, injuring her severely.

Shot by a Colored Waiter.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., March 14.—Jack Kirk was arrested last Monday night for stealing $5 from Belle Logan, and at noon yesterday he was on his way to Michigan City, where he will stay a year with Warden French. After stealing the money Kirk got drunk and attempted to clean out the railroad eatinghouse, but he stopped when the colored waiter shot him in the arm with a pistol, inflicting a painful wound.

Work of Masked Robbers.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., March 14.—Monday evening three masked robbers, with drawn revolvers and knives, entered the residence of George Willman, a wealthy farmer on the edge of town. Willman was absent, and the family had not retired. At the point of a revolver Mrs. Willman was compelled to give up what money there was in the house.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. "Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

AN EVENT LONG REMEMBERED.

It Occurs When a Girl Gets Her First Evening Dress.

The first evening dress of a young girl is a very important thing, at least to her, and should be chosen carefully with an eye to setting off her youthful freshness and the avoidance of an air of maturity. It is a great mistake to put young girls in thick silks and satins and smother the simple-ty that is their chief charm under a load of expensive materials that they have neither the years nor experience to carry off well.

China silks, embroidered India mull, airy nets and all sheer, dainty fabrics are suitable and may be trimmed with silk or velvet ribbons and light lace. If jewels are worn, they should be of the simplest. The most fastidious taste dispenses with them entirely until the ingenue stage is passed. It is also much the best form to have the corsage cut only half low. An extremely pretty gown worn by a girl of 17 at a late wedding reception was made of plain white silk muslin, with a full waist gathered into a belt, the neck being cut down but two inches all around and shirred with a little heading. The puffed sleeves reached to the elbow, and a few sprays of smilax were the only adornment. This unusually simple attire gave the young girl, who, although pretty, was rather heavy, a delicate and refinement of appearance which a more elaborate toilet, such as she will have to wear in two or three years, would have put out of the question.

The gown of which a sketch is given is not so plain as the one just mentioned, but is nevertheless simple and appropriate enough for the average young girl. It is of embroidered silk muslin, pale green in tint, made over a silk lining of the same color. The full muslin skirt hangs over a bell skirt of the silk, around the bottom of which are set moss green velvet rosettes at regular intervals. The full bodice is gathered in at the waist under a belt trimmed with velvet rosettes. The neck is cut square and is surrounded by a shirred ruffle of the muslin. The sleeves, which extend almost to the elbow, are very full, and over the upper half velvet straps are tucked, ending in bows and rosettes. White gloves are worn.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

The national board of directors of the Travelers' Protective association has decided upon Milwaukee as the place to hold the next annual convention, and June 19 as the date.

At Savannah, Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the state bank, while temporarily insane committed suicide by saturating her clothes with oil and setting herself on fire.

E. R. Walters, chief clerk to Superintendent Brant of the Colorado and Midland railway at Denver, was arrested, charged with embezzling about $15,000. Walters secured the money by means of forged payrolls, which he has successfully cashed for over four years.

Antonio de la Torre, an Italian engineer, claims to have solved the problem of perpetual motion by a machine he is exhibiting at San Francisco. It is in the form of a revolving circle driven by rolling spheres. The friction problem is said to have been overcome by an Archimedean screw.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by Mr George W. Blatterman, County Superintendent.

DOWNING—DISTRICT NO. 29.

The trustees are Thomas Higgins, Thomas Slack, Daniel Adams. Teacher, Miss Willa Burgoyne. Enrollment, twenty-seven; attendance, twenty-six, which is above the average attendance in our schools. This school house has been much improved and will very soon have new furniture and other improvements. The teacher gave a good report of the deportment of the scholars and the instruction by the teacher was faithfully observed and all was progressing satisfactorily.

ORANGEBURG—DISTRICT NO. 21.

The trustees are Thomas Dickson, Dr. W. P. Ford, Millard Campbell. This is a large subject, being one of the largest and best schools in the county. The district has, and has always had, a faithful and efficient board of trustees, and this is a very important element in our school system. They have shown good judgment in the selection of teachers. The principal is Mr. H. P. Wilson, and the assistant Miss Ida Mayhugh. I do not believe the school could do better in this regard. I have observed Prof. Wilson with much interest, and I think any school district fortunate to secure his services. Miss Mayhugh has taught for many years in this county, and so has her sister, Miss Kate Mayhugh, and I hold both these young ladies in very high esteem in every respect. They are always popular with their schools. The attendance was eighty-seven; this school has always had a good attendance. The methods of instruction are the most approved, and the discipline of the school is good. The school is in a highly flourishing condition. Valuable improvements have been made upon the house, including a commodious room attached for the primary scholars, and the money raised to pay for it all. This district responds very promptly when a tax is levied for the interest of their school. The fence needs repair and some attention to the outhouses, but that will be looked after, as well as furnishing school apparatus, by the trustees, who I have always found prompt and diligent in making any required improvements. G. W. BLATTERMAN, Sup't.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
